November 2023: Issue 1

This Newsletter introduces Crisp Law's newest clerks and soon-to-be Graduates, Diana and Shereen. Both studying at the University of Western Sydney, Diana and Shereen have shared their experiences of what led them to work at Crisp Law. Diana and Shereen will be commencing their Practical Legal Training at the College of Law in early 2024 – a significant milestone for any aspiring lawyer.

Diana

CLERK/GRADUATE

Our newest clerk, Diana, is set to graduate from Western Sydney University (WSU) at the end of 2023 with a dual degree in Law and Business (majoring in Human Resources). Diana's stellar academic performance, particularly the high distinction in Construction Law, caught the attention of the Academic Director of the School of Law at WSU, who then paved the way for her introduction to Glenn, the Principal at Crisp Law. Following two successful interviews, Diana was offered the position of a clerk and will be joining Crisp Law's Graduate Program in 2024.

“I have really enjoyed my experience so far. I have gained a great deal of knowledge from the research tasks and case notes I have been provided. Working with all the staff at Crisp Law has been really enjoyable. Everyone is well educated and are great people to learn from.”

Looking ahead, Diana is eager to expand her knowledge in all areas of construction law and statute liability. More specifically, Diana is looking forward to contribute to the litigation team and enhance her legal skill set alongside experienced colleagues.

Shereen

CLERK/GRADUATE

Shereen, currently in the final year of her Law degree at WSU, has already completed a Communications degree, majoring in Public Relations. Similar to Diana, Shereen also performed exceptionally well in her Construction Law unit, receiving a high distinction.

While initially grappling with the nerves about working in a law firm for the first time, Shereen expressed how the opportunity at Crisp Law perfectly aligns with her passion for contract law and construction law.

“The team at Crisp Law is friendly and helpful. I have already been introduced to new ideas and developed my skills in a short period of time.”

Looking ahead to her graduate role at Crisp Law in early 2024, Shereen anticipates challenges that will push her beyond her comfort zone and is eager to grow as a young professional in the legal industry. Shereen leaves us with a valuable piece of advice:

“I would stress the importance of trying new things even when you are unsure of where it might take you or whether you would immediately excel in it.”
